

(b) If a member transfers on or after January 1, 1980 from a retirement or pension system operated on an actuarial basis where accumulated contributions are deducted on all earnable compensation to a retirement or pension system where accumulated contributions are not deducted on all earnable compensation, the member shall receive service credit for and in the amount of benefits in the system to which the member transfers. Any claim for the service credit shall be made within 1 year of the date of entrance into the system to which the member transfers. Notwithstanding any other provision of this article or the laws of any political subdivision of this State, upon verification of the service credit, the system from which the transfer is made may not provide any benefit for the service credit transferred. The member's accumulated contributions shall be refunded upon request.

(c) If a member transfers from a retirement or pension system operated on an actuarial basis where accumulated contributions are not deducted on all earnable compensation to a retirement or pension system where accumulated contributions are deducted on all earnable compensation, the member shall receive service credit for and in the amount of benefits in the system to which the member transfers. Upon retirement, the member's retirement allowance shall be reduced by the actuarial equivalent of the accumulated contributions with interest that have not been deducted. Any claim for the service credit shall be made within 1 year of the date of entrance into the system to which the member transfers. Notwithstanding any other provision of this article or the laws of any political subdivision of this State, upon verification of the service credit, the system from which the transfer is made may not provide any benefit for the service credit transferred. Any accumulated contributions to the credit of the member in the system from which the member transfers shall be refunded upon request.

(d) If a member transfers from a retirement or pension system operated on an actuarial basis where accumulated contributions are not deducted on all earnable compensation to a retirement or pension system where accumulated contributions are not deducted on all earnable compensation, the member shall receive service credit for and in the amount of benefits in the system to which the member transfers. Any claim for the service credit shall be made within 1 year of the date of entrance into the system to which the member transfers. Notwithstanding any other provision of this article or the laws of any political subdivision of this State, upon verification of the service credit, the system from which the transfer is made may not provide any benefit for the service credit transferred. Any accumulated contributions to the credit of the member in the system from which the member transfers shall be refunded upon request. Accumulated contributions applicable to the receipt of service credit or benefits in the system to which the member transfers may not be refunded.

(E) (1) IF SERVICE CREDIT IS TRANSFERRED UNDER § 31(B) OF THIS SUBTITLE FOR A FORMER MEMBER OF A RETIREMENT OR PENSION SYSTEM, THE FORMER MEMBER SHALL RECEIVE SERVICE CREDIT FOR AND IN THE AMOUNT OF BENEFITS IN THE SYSTEM TO WHICH THE MEMBER TRANSFERS.

(2) ANY CLAIM FOR THE SERVICE CREDIT SHALL BE MADE ON OR BEFORE THE LATER OF:

(1) JULY 1, 1991; OR
