

(ii) Request that the person permit a test to be taken of the person's blood or breath to determine [the] alcohol concentration [of the person's body]; and

(iii) Advise the person of the administrative sanctions that shall be imposed for refusal to take the test and for test results indicating an alcohol concentration of 0.10 or more at the time of testing.

(3) If the person refuses to take the test or takes a test [for alcohol] which results in an alcohol concentration of 0.10 or more at the time of testing, the police officer shall:

(i) Confiscate the [driver's] PERSON'S license issued by this State;

(ii) Acting on behalf of the Administration, personally serve an order of suspension on the person;

(iii) Issue a temporary license to drive;

(iv) Inform the person that the temporary license allows the person to continue driving for 45 days if the person is licensed under this title;

(v) Inform the person that the person has 10 days in which to request a hearing to show cause why the driver's license should not be suspended concerning the refusal to take [a] THE test [for alcohol] or for TEST RESULTS INDICATING an alcohol concentration of 0.10 or more at the time of testing;

(vi) Advise the person of the administrative sanctions that shall be imposed in the event of failure to request a hearing, failure to attend a requested hearing, or upon an adverse finding by the hearing officer; and

(vii) Within 72 hours after the issuance of the order of suspension, send any confiscated driver's license, copy of the suspension order, and a sworn statement to the Administration, that states:

1. The officer had reasonable grounds to believe that the person had been driving or attempting to drive a motor vehicle on a highway or on any private property that is used by the public in general in this State while intoxicated, while under the influence of alcohol, [or] in violation of an alcohol restriction, ~~IN VIOLATION OF 49 CFR § 392.5, OR IN VIOLATION OF § 16-813 OF THIS TITLE;~~

2. The person refused to take the test [for] TO DETERMINE alcohol CONCENTRATION when requested by the police officer or the person submitted to the test [for alcohol] which indicated an alcohol concentration of 0.10 or more at the time of testing; and

3. The person was fully advised of the administrative sanctions that shall be imposed.

(c) (1) If a person is involved in a motor vehicle accident that results in the death of another person and the person is detained by a police officer who has reasonable grounds to believe that the person has been driving or attempting to drive while intoxicated, while under the influence of alcohol, ~~in violation of 49 CFR § 392.5,~~
