power in Article 44A, § 1-301 of the Annotated Code of Maryland may not be construed in any way to imply that the exercise of the power by a housing authority prior to the effective date of this Act was not authorized by prior law.

SECTION 3 ~~7~~. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That, except as expressly provided to the contrary in this Act, this Act is not intended to alter any right to benefits or to limit any immunity from liability of a housing authority, its commissioners, executive director or employees, and any transaction affected by or flowing from any statute here amended, repealed, or transferred, and validly entered into before the effective date of this Act and every right, duty, or interest flowing from it remains valid after the effective date of this Act and may be terminated, completed, consummated, or enforced pursuant to law.

SECTION ~~4~~ 8. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1990.

May 29, 1990

The Honorable Thomas V. Mike Miller, Jr.
President of the Senate
State House
Annapolis, Maryland 21401

Dear Mr. President:

In accordance with Article II, Section 17 of the Maryland Constitution, I have today vetoed Senate Bill 338.

This bill prevents the clerk of the court from charging a municipality real property recording fees unless the municipality first gives its consent to be charged.

House Bill 976, which was passed by the General Assembly and signed by me on May 29, 1990, accomplishes the same purpose. Therefore, it is not necessary for me to sign Senate Bill 338.

Sincerely,
William Donald Schaefer
Governor

Senate Bill No. 338

AN ACT concerning

Real Property - Recording Costs

FOR the purpose of providing that a clerk of court may not charge any municipality certain recording fees relating to real property unless the municipality first gives its consent to be charged.
