Article 10 – Attorneys at Law and Attorneys in Fact

[33.

(a) If a person has not been duly admitted to the bar in this State or elsewhere or, after having been so admitted, has been disbarred, the person may not in any manner whatever represent himself to be entitled to practice law.

(b) An advertisement of any bank, trust company, or corporate fiduciary may not, directly or indirectly:

(1) Indicate that it offers or performs the same services as those of an attorney;

(2) Reflect on the qualification of attorneys in any capacity, including fiduciary capacities; or

(3) Imply that the services of an attorney are only secondary or ministerial.

(c) Any person who violates any provision of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction is subject to a fine of not more than $5,000 or imprisonment for not more than 6 months or both.]

DRAFTER'S NOTE:

Error: Failure to repeal revised section.

Occurred: As a result of Ch. 3, Acts of 1989, which enacted the Business Occupations Article and which revised the provisions of Article 10, § 33.
