CHAPTER 99

(Senate Bill 200)

AN ACT concerning

Juvenile Facilities – Places of Confinement

FOR the purpose of clarifying which facilities operated by the Department of Juvenile Services are considered places of confinement; altering the definition of places of confinement; and generally relating to facilities that are used as places of confinement for juveniles.

BY repealing and reenacting, with amendments,
Article 27 – Crimes and Punishments
Section 139(a)
Annotated Code of Maryland
(1987 Replacement Volume and 1989 Supplement)

SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, That the Laws of Maryland read as follows:

Article 27 – Crimes and Punishments

139.

(a) (1) If any individual who is legally detained in the State penitentiary or a jail, house of correction, reformatory, station house, or other place of confinement in this State or who is committed to the Alcohol and Drug Abuse Administration for examination or inpatient treatment escapes, the individual is guilty of a felony and on conviction by the circuit court for the county in which the escape takes place, is subject to confinement in the State penitentiary or a jail or house of correction for an additional period not exceeding 10 years. The sentence imposed under this subsection shall be consecutive to any sentence which was being served at the time of the escape, or any sentence which had been imposed but was not yet being served at the time of sentencing on the escape. A sentence imposed under this subsection may not be suspended.
