

(d) The Trust may issue an exclusive permit for the excavation, destruction, or substantive injury or disturbance of submerged archaeological historic property on submerged lands over which the State has sovereign control to any person or entity for such period of time and under such conditions as the Trust may deem appropriate. After an agreement has been entered into pursuant to § [5-611(c)] 5-611.1(C) of this [article] SUBTITLE, permits may be issued if the Trust determines that:

(1) Issuance of a permit is in the best interest of the State; and

(2) The applicant for such a permit has submitted a research plan that meets standards established by the Trust regarding professional qualifications, techniques and methodology for recovery and dissemination of data, and proper conservation of information and materials.
