

passage of an act, entitled, An act to regulate lotteries, passed at December session eighteen hundred and seventeen, chapter one hundred and fifty-four, for the benefit of the said academy, upon the faith of the act of eighteen hundred and thirteen, chapter eighteen, authorising a lottery to be drawn for the purpose therein mentioned; provided the said trustees shall relinquish their right to draw the said lottery. CHAP. 131.

2. And be it enacted, That the aforesaid trustees be and they are hereby authorised and required, to apply the money so paid to them to the discharge of any debt, or liability, which they may now owe, or may have incurred, for or on account of any monies advanced for the benefit of said academy. Application thereof

CHAP. CXXXII.

An Act for the relief of Aquila Beall and Trueman Tyler, of Prince-George's County. Passed Mar 1 1827

WHEREAS by the laws of this state regulating officers fees, and the manner of their collection, the several officers who are entitled to charge fees, are required to place their lists of fees in the hands of the respective sheriffs for collection, and take their receipts for the same, on or before the first day of March in each year, in order to make the bonds of the said sheriffs responsible for said fees: And whereas Aquila Beall, clerk of Prince-George's county court, and Trueman Tyler, register of wills of said county, in consequence of being obliged to comply with an order of the house of delegates lately passed, will not be able to make out their accounts, and place their respective lists in the hands of the several sheriffs, from whose counties said fees are due, by the time above mentioned; Therefore, Preamble

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That if the said Aquila Beall and Trueman Tyler, shall make out their accounts of fees, which were charged in the year eighteen hundred and twenty-six, and are collectable in the year eighteen hundred and twenty-seven, and tender their lists to the respective sheriffs of the several counties from which said fees are due, by the twentieth day of March eighteen hundred and twenty-seven, the said respective sheriffs are hereby required to receive said lists, and give their receipts to the said Aquila Beall and Trueman Tyler, for the same. Time extended for delivery of lists of fees

2. And be it enacted, That the respective sheriffs aforesaid be and they are hereby required to collect and account for said fees in the usual manner. To be collected in usual manner

3. And be it enacted, That the bonds of the said sheriffs shall be responsible for the collection, and a true and faithful account of said fees, in the same manner, and to the same extent, as if said fees had been placed in the hands of said sheriffs for collection, on or before the first day of March, any former law to the contrary notwithstanding. Bonds of Sheriffs to be responsible

CHAP. CXXXIII.

An Act to repeal and alter all such parts of the Constitution and Form of Government as relate to the division of Baltimore County into Election Districts. Passed Mar 1, 1827

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all such parts of the constitution and form of government Part of constitution repealed,