CHAP. CXLII.

An Act for the establishment of a Road, and the condemnation of Land for its repair, in Kent County. Passed Mar. 2. 1827

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the road running by Doctor Thomas Willson's gate to Eastern Neck Island Bridge, and thence by William R. Durdin's gate in Kent county, and now open and in common use, shall hereafter be a public highway, and that the same shall be kept in repair as other public roads in the county are. Certain road made a public highway

2. And be it enacted, That Samuel Hodges, Thomas Miller, Merit Miller, William Crane and Alexander W. Ringgold, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners, who, or a majority of them, shall have power and authority to locate and condemn suitable parcels of ground, adjacent to said road, as they may deem necessary for the purpose of keeping the same in repair; that the said parcels of land, so to be condemned, shall not exceed two acres; that the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall ascertain whatever damages any person or persons may sustain in consequence of the condemnation of the said parcels of land, or any of them, that they shall also mark and bound the said parcels of land, and cause a plat or plats, and certificate of the same, to be made out, which assessment of damages, together with the plats and certificates, and a full report of the proceedings under the hands and seals of the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall be returned to the levy court of Kent county, which proceedings shall be recorded by the clerk of the county. Necessary ground may be condemned

3. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners, before they proceed to act, shall give fifteen days notice of the time and place of their meeting, by advertisement set up at three or more public places in the neighbourhood of said road, and shall also take an oath to perform the duties assigned them by this act, according to the best of their skill and judgment. Notice to be given

4. And be it enacted, That the levy court of Kent county be and they are hereby authorised and required, to levy upon the assessable property of the county the damages so ascertained, and a compensation of two dollars per day for each commissioner, for each and every day he may have served in virtue of this act, and to have the same collected and paid to the persons respectively, for whom the levy shall be made.
