Road may be laid out and opened.

CHAP. XIX.

A Supplement to an act, entitled, An act to incorporate the Trustees of the Male Free School of Baltimore.

Passed Jan 17, 1827

WHEREAS the trustees of the male free school of Baltimore, by their petition to this general assembly, have represented, that it would facilitate the business of the institution if the number of trustees required by the act was increased, and have prayed that a law may be passed for that purpose; and this general assembly being desirous to aid and promote the institution; Therefore,

Preamble.

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the trustees of the male free school of Baltimore, shall, within three months after the passage of this act, elect by ballot, six additional trustees, who shall possess the like requisites and qualifications as are required for trustees to possess under the act to which this is a supplement, and such trustees, when so elected, shall have like powers and authority, privileges and advantages, as belong or pertain to the present trustees, or any of them.

Additional Trustees to be elected.

2. And be it further enacted, That all vacancies created by death, resignation, disability, or other cause, shall be filled in the same manner as is provided in the original act to which this is a supplement, so that the number of fifteen trustees shall be kept up and continued forever; Provided always, that nothing in this act contained shall affect the number of trustees now necessary to form a quorum for the transaction of business.

Vacancies, how to be supplied.
