CHAP. CLIII.

An Act for the benefit of John Aisquith, the Administrator of Robert C. Passed Mar 8 1827
Aisquith, late of the City of Baltimore, deceased.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, that Robert C. Aisquith was for several years collector of the county and state taxes for four wards in the city of Baltimore, and that he paid to the levy court of Baltimore county the whole amount of taxes put into his hands for collection, without any allowance for insolvencies, and that he departed this life before the expiration of the time allowed to him by law for completing his collections for the year eighteen hundred and twenty-four, and leaving the same unfinished;

Preamble

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the commissioners of the tax for the city of Baltimore be and they hereby are authorised, empowered and directed, to ascertain what sums of money John Aisquith, as administrator of the estate of the said Robert C. Aisquith, is justly entitled to be credited for and allowed in settling the account of the said Robert C. Aisquith, as collector aforesaid, for taxes owing from insolvent persons, or others, which the said Robert C. Aisquith did not and could not collect in his life-time.

Sums to be ascertained which John Aisquith is entitled to

2. And be it enacted, That the levy court of Baltimore county be and they hereby are authorised, empowered and directed, to allow to, and credit the said John Aisquith with, all such sums as the said commissioners of the tax shall have ascertained that the said Robert C. Aisquith, whilst he was collector as aforesaid, did not and could not collect by reason of the insolvency of the persons owing the same, or other cause, and upon such allowance and credit, to receive any balance to them due in full of all claims against the estate of the said Robert C. Aisquith, as collector as aforesaid, and if upon such allowance and credit the said levy court shall appear to have been overpaid, then to refund and pay back to the said John Aisquith the amount so overpaid; and the said levy court shall levy such sum, as shall be necessary for that purpose, on the assessable property within the city of Baltimore.

Levy court to allow the same
