

CHAP. 163. there deposited by the trustee aforesaid, and after paying out of the same such part thereof to the said Nicholas G. Ridgely, or his representatives, as the chancellor may think his interests in said property entitles him to receive, the balance of said proceeds shall be invested by said trustee, under the direction of the chancellor, and in such fund as the chancellor may authorise, for the benefit of the same persons, and to the same uses, as are provided for by the aforesaid deed of indenture.

Chancellor may pass d. decree, &c

5. And be it enacted, That the chancellor shall have full and complete authority to pass any or every such decree or order in the premises as he may think necessary to carry into effect the object of this act.

CHAP. CLXIV.

Passed Mar 5, 1827 An Act for the relief of Sarah Henderson, of Montgomery County.

Preamble

WHEREAS it is represented by the petition of the said Sarah Henderson, that a large sum of money was due to her by John A. T. Kilgour, late of said county, deceased, in liquidation of which debt he assigned to her sundry promissory notes, and a list of fees, due him as an attorney of Montgomery county court, and afterwards conveyed all his property in trust for the benefit of creditors, and died without estate of any kind, and without any thing to administer, and largely indebted, and no letters of administration have been applied for or granted; and if the said Sarah Henderson shall be constrained to take out letters of administration, to enable her to collect the debts due to the said John A. T. Kilgour in his life-time, and assigned to her, she will be subjected to great loss and inconvenience; Therefore,

Authorized to sue
for and recover
monies due her

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said Sarah Henderson shall have full power and authority to sue for in her own name, any monies due to the said John A. T. Kilgour in his life-time, and by him assigned to her, and recover the same, in as full and ample manner as she could do if administration of the estate of the said John A. T. Kilgour were duly committed to her by the orphans court of Montgomery county.

CHAP. CLXV.

Passed Mar 5, 1827 An Act to alter the time of holding the County Courts of Frederick County, and for other purposes.

Time of meeting
altered

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the county court of Frederick county shall hereafter commence and be held on the fourth Monday in February, instead of the first Monday in February, and on the fourth Monday in October, instead of the first Monday in August.

Repeal

2. And be it enacted. That the second section of an act, entitled, An act to alter the time of holding the county courts of Frederick county, passed at December session eighteen hundred and twenty-three, be and the same is hereby repealed.

When to take effect

3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after the termination of the next August term of said court.