

CHAP. 24. the building of said bridge, as they in their discretion may think necessary and expedient.

Contract already made to be adopted.

3. And be it further enacted, That the said levy court shall adopt the contract already made and concluded by Jacob Cronise, in his individual capacity, for the construction of said bridge, unless the same shall be deemed, all circumstances considered, disadvantageous in its terms, or in anywise unfair.

CHAP. XXV.

Passed Jan 20, 1827 An Act to make valid a Deed from John Miles to John Coulburn, late of Somerset County, deceased.

Deed made valid. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the deed of conveyance made by John Miles, a former constable of Little Annessex Hundred in Somerset county, to John Coulburn, of Somerset county, and bearing date the thirtieth day of August, eighteen hundred and sixteen, executed and acknowledged before William A. Schoolfield and William Roach, two justices of the peace for Somerset county, shall have the same force, operation and effect, as it would have had if the lands therein mentioned, and thereby bargained and sold, or intended so to be, had been situated in Little Annessex Hundred, within the hundred and jurisdiction of the said John Miles, the party grantor therein named, and the sale of said land is hereby made as valid as it would have been if the said land had been so situated; saving nevertheless to all persons whatever any rights by them acquired to said property, and leaving in full operation and validity any claim that might be now binding upon, or considered as affecting said property.

CHAP. XXVI.

Passed Jan 23, 1827 An Additional Supplement to the Act for the relief of the Poor in Dorchester and Somerset Counties.

Trustees of poor of Somerset county to appoint an overseer.

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, the trustees of the poor of Somerset county shall, at their annual meeting in November, appoint an overseer of the poor of said county, according to the provisions of the original to which this is a supplement, who shall enter on the discharge of his duties on the first day of January ensuing.

Section repealed.

2. And be it enacted, That so much of the eighth section of the act of assembly, passed at December session eighteen hundred and twenty-two, chapter fifty-two, which directs the said trustees to elect an overseer in the month of May, be and the same is hereby repealed.

CHAP. XXVII.

Passed Jan 23, 1827 An Act for the revaluation of the Real and Personal Property in Washington County.

Property to be revalued and recorded.

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the commissioners of the tax for Washington county be, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, to meet at Hager's-town, in said county, on the second Monday in October in the year eighteen hundred and twenty-seven, or as soon thereafter as practicable, and then and there proceed to revalue and
