

CHAP. 192. any judge of Baltimore county court, shall have full power, on proof of ten days notice to the complainant or complainants, to hear and decide on a motion to dissolve such injunction, and to order the bill, or any other papers upon which such injunction shall be granted, wheresoever the same may be filed, to be produced before him for that purpose, any thing in any law or rule of court to the contrary notwithstanding; and on hearing any motion to dissolve an injunction so granted, if the chancellor or judge shall be satisfied, that the same was obtained through misrepresentation, and for delay, he shall decree that the party, who so obtained the same, shall pay interest to the mortgagee, or to the party claiming under him, at the rate of ten per cent per annum on the amount of the mortgage debt, from the time of granting the injunction until the same shall be dissolved, and shall enforce the execution of such decree, in such manner as is authorised by law in cases of final decrees; and before any injunction shall be granted as aforesaid, the chancellor or judge granting the same, shall require the complainant or complainants, or some person on his, her, or their behalf, with at least two good securities, to be approved of by the said chancellor or judge, to execute to the mortgagee, or the persons claiming or acting under him, and file in court, a bond, in such penalty as the said chancellor or judge shall prescribe, conditioned to obey, abide, perform and fulfil, such decree and order as shall be made in the premises, upon which bond the said mortgagee, or his assigns, shall be entitled to recover all such debt, damages, interest and costs, as shall be decreed to be paid on dissolving the injunction.

CHAP. CXCIII.

Passed Mar 6, 1827 A Further Supplement to the act, entitled, An Act to incorporate a Company to make a Turnpike Road from the City of Baltimore to Havre-de-Grace.

Commissioners appointed to lay out a road

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Baltimore and Havre-de-Grace Turnpike Company, be and they are hereby authorised to appoint five commissioners, who, or a majority of whom agreeing, shall lay out a road, commencing at or near the town of Bush, in Harford county, to the bridge at or near Port Deposit, on as straight a line as the nature of the country will admit, and as a branch, and a part of the road authorised by the act to which this is a supplement, and the said company are hereby empowered to make the said branch a part of the original turnpike road; and the said commissioners, and the said company, in laying out and in making said branch, shall have all the powers, rights, immunities and privileges, and shall be governed by, and shall be subject to, all the regulations, restrictions, duties and penalties, prescribed by the said original act, to which this is a supplement, in the same manner and form, and to the same extent, as if the said branch had been a part of the road originally authorised by the act to which this is a supplement, provided that the said company shall first remunerate, to the levy court of Harford county, all the expenses already incurred in the laying out and opening of the road from the town of Bush to the bridge at or near Port Deposit, either by the payment of money, or by transferring to