CHAP. CCXXXIX.

An Act to provide for altering the grade of Fayette-Street, in the City of Baltimore, between Paca and Cove-Streets. Passed Mar 12 1827

WHEREAS a number of the owners and proprietors of lands situate and lying in the city of Baltimore, by their petition to this general assembly have set forth, that much inconvenience is experienced from the former grading of Fayette-street, between Paca and Cove-streets, as heretofore established by the city commissioners of said city, and that the grade thereof cannot be altered where a single individual, out of many interested, may be found dissenting therefrom; Therefore,

Preamble

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the city commissioners of the city of Baltimore, together with George Millemon and Robert Cary Long, citizens of Baltimore, be and they are hereby constituted a board of commissioners, and authorised and empowered so to alter the grade of Fayette-street, between Paca and Cove-streets, in said city, as in their judgments they shall determine to be most conducive to the public convenience and benefit, and in case of death, resignation, or refusal to act, or any other inability of either of the persons herein named and appointed to act in conjunction with the city commissioners aforesaid, or of any person or persons appointed to act in the stead of them, or either of them, the said board may supply such vacancy by election, and a majority of the said board of commissioners shall be competent to perform all the duties of the said board.

City commissioners authorised to alter grade of street

2. And be it enacted, That upon application to the said board of commissioners, from the proprietors of a majority of the feet of ground fronting on Fayette-street, between Paca and Cove-streets as aforesaid, at any time before the first day of September next, to alter the grade as aforesaid, the said board of commissioners, or a majority of them, may proceed to determine on the same, after giving at least ten days notice in two

On application commissioners may determine.
