

table, under seal, to be paid by the person applying therefor,	75 cts.	CHAP. 247.
For granting and issuing, under seal of office, a marriage license,	50 cts.	Clerks of County Courts, and Baltimore City Court.
For issuing under seal of office, a license to a vender of lottery tickets, to be paid by the person or persons applying therefor,	$1 00
For drawing a protest to a promissory note, an inland bill of exchange, or order, with the seal of office, under the act of November session seventeen hundred and eighty-five, chapter thirty-eight,	$1 00
For granting on parchment, and registering a certificate of freedom, with the seal of office, under the act of November session eighteen hundred and five, chapter sixty-six, and the supplement thereto of eighteen hundred and seven, chapter one hundred and sixty-four,	$1 00
For entering the admission and qualification of an attorney, with certificate under seal, including all oaths taken thereon, to be paid by said attorney,	$1 00
For making out lists of alienations of land, and transfers of personal property, for the commissioners of the tax, for every ten words or figures thereof, and so pro rata ,	1½ cts.
For making out lists of amerancements, fines and forfeitures, for the sheriff, for every ten words or figures thereof, and so pro rata ,	1½ cts.
For collecting, receiving and paying over, to the respective treasurers of the western and eastern shores, conformably to law, all monies or taxes imposed on marriage licenses, and licenses granted to ordinary keepers, to retailers of spirituous liquors at horse-races, to hawkers or pedlars, to billiard table keepers, and to venders of lottery tickets, and also all monies for and on account of taxes imposed on plaintiffs in suits or actions at law, there shall hereafter be allowed to the respective clerks of the counties, and the clerk of the city court of Baltimore, besides the fees herein before limited, for granting and issuing said licenses, a commission of five per centum on the amount so collected and paid over agreeably to law.
For issuing warrants to constables, supervisors, or overseers of the public roads and highways, and to judges of elections, under seal, for each,	50 cts.
For a warrant, under seal of office, to commissioners to lay out a new or to review an old road, or to the sheriff to summons persons to review and assess damages sustained by any person through whose lands a road may be laid out, for each,	50 cts.
For making out abstracts or summary statements of the levy lists to be set up in the several election districts, for every ten words or figures of the original abstract, and so pro rata ,	3 cts.	