

CHAP. 37.

CHAP. XXXVII.

Passed Jan. 6, 1827

An Act to extend the time for James Dirickson, late Collector of Worcester County, to complete his collection.

Time for payment of certain revenue into the treasury extended

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the time limited by law for the payment into the treasury of the revenue for the support of government by James Dirickson, ordered to be levied by the act of December session eighteen hundred and twenty-four, chapter one hundred and fifty-nine, be and the same is hereby extended to the first day of June next; Provided, that the said James Dirickson shall on or before the first day of March next, give an additional bond to the state of Maryland, in a penalty, and with security to be approved of by any two justices of the orphans court of Worcester county, conditioned for his faithfully collecting, paying, and accounting for, all monies not heretofore collected and paid over, directed to be collected under the said act of December session eighteen hundred and twenty-four, chapter one hundred and fifty-nine, on or before the said first day of June next.

Proviso

Bond to be recorded

2. And be it enacted, That the said bond so to be entered into by the said James Dirickson, shall be immediately delivered by the justices of the orphans court, who are authorised by this act to take the same, to the clerk of Worcester county court, to be by him recorded, a certified copy whereof, under the seal of the said court, shall be as available for all purposes as the original bond would be if produced and proved.

CHAP. XXXVIII.

Passed Jan 27, 1827

An Act to authorise and empower James J. Bourne, of Calvert county, to perfect a contract entered into by himself, and Susan his Wife, with Nathaniel Dare, of the said county, and for other purposes.

Preamble

WHEREAS it has been represented to this general assembly by the petition of James J. Bourne, that by the death of John Dare, of Calvert county, a considerable tract of land, situate in said county, descended to Susan Bourne, wife of the petitioner, and to Ann B. Dare and Nathaniel Dare, heirs at law of the said John Dare, and that the petitioner and wife sold their interests in the said land to Nathaniel Dare, and gave their bond for the conveyance of the same, on the final payment of the purchase money, in three annual instalments, and that since the making of the said contract, the wife of the petitioner hath departed this life, leaving four children named Margaret A. Bourne, Mary D. Bourne, John D. Bourne and James J. Bourne, all minors, and that the said Nathaniel Dare hath paid a part of the purchase money to the petitioner: And whereas the petitioner hath prayed the passage of a law enabling him to complete the said contract, and securing his rights, and those of his children, under the act to direct descents, and its several supplements: And whereas the facts stated in the said petition appear to be true; Therefore,

J. J. Bourne empowered to complete contract

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said James J. Bourne is hereby authorised, empowered, enabled and made capable, to complete the contract entered into by himself, and Susan his wife, with the said Nathaniel Dare,