

CHAP. 38.  tenance and education of the said Margaret A. Bourne, Mary D. Bourne, John D. Bourne and James J. Bourne, during their minority, by the said James J. Bourne, the petitioner, or their testamentary guardian, or guardian appointed by the orphans court of Calvert county; that is to say, until the males shall attain unto the age of twenty-one years, and the females shall arrive at the age of eighteen years.

To account with and pay over shares of purchase money 7. And be it enacted, That on their arrival at their respective ages as aforesaid, the said James J. Bourne shall deliver up, account with, and pay over to them respectively, their several distributive shares of the purchase money aforesaid, or of the real estate, fund or stock of the United States, or bank stock aforesaid, in case the same may be invested as contemplated by this act, together with any interest or annual proceeds thereof which may remain in his hands, and which shall not be appropriated as aforesaid to their maintenance or education.

Purchase money to revert, &c 8. And be it enacted, That the purchase money aforesaid, or any fund or stock in which the same may be invested agreeably to the provisions of this act, and the interest or proceeds thereof, shall revert and descend among the legal representatives of the said Margaret A. Bourne, Mary D. Bourne, John D. Bourne and James J. Bourne, in case of their deaths, or the death of either of them, previous to their arrival at the age of twenty-one years, in the same manner as the land and premises aforesaid would have reverted and descended if this act had not passed; Provided nevertheless, that the aforesaid Margaret A. Bourne, Mary D. Bourne, John D. Bourne and James J. Bourne, may dispose of their several distributive shares of the purchase money aforesaid, or real estate, or fund or stock, in which the same may be invested as herein provided, and the interest or proceeds thereof, by last will and testament, in the same manner as if this act had not passed.

Provide

In case of death orphans court empowered to appoint some other person 9. And be it enacted, That in case of the death of the said James J. Bourne, the petitioner, before the final payment of the purchase money aforesaid, and the conveyance of the land and premises aforesaid, and the completion of the contract aforesaid, the orphans court of Calvert county shall have full power and authority to nominate and appoint some fit and proper person, who is hereby invested with full power to carry into effect the objects and provisions herein contained, on giving such security for the faithful performance of his trust, as is herein before directed to be given by the said James J. Bourne, the petitioner, and so as often as need be to carry into effect the provisions hereof.

Account of money to be returned to orphans court 10. And be it enacted, That the said James J. Bourne shall return a true and just account of the amount of the purchase money aforesaid to the orphans court of Calvert county, there to be recorded; Provided, that he shall not be bound to render any other account thereof to the said court, unless cited by his sureties to give counter security; Provided further, that the said James J. Bourne, the petitioner, shall not be entitled to any commission for rendering an account of the amount of the purchase money aforesaid to the orphans court aforesaid, nor for any other matter or thing touching or concerning, or growing out of
