

INDEX TO THE LAWS.

	Chap.
COURT OF CHANCERY.
Certain records of the court when completed to be evidence,	237
See Appeals, and	200
— Dashiell, Alfred H. and	163
— Notice, and	178
 COURT, TERESA
. A deed of manumission executed by Richard Darnall, of a female negro called Teresa, now the wife of William Court, declared to be valid and effectual to give freedom to the said Teresa and her issue.	236
 COVE POINT.
. . . See Light Houses, and	202
 CRAWFORD, DAVID
Certain proceedings of him and others relative to the application of the proceeds of a lottery confirmed,	33
 CRIMES & PUNISHMENTS.
Free negroes and mulattoes may be sentenced to confinement in the Penitentiary,	229
See Felony, and	260
— Lunatics, and	197
— Misdemeanor, and	260
— Penitentiary, and	229
 CROSS, FIELDER
. Time extended for completing his collection,	23
 CROWS.
. . . . For their destruction in Talbot, Calvert, Prince George's and Harford counties,	110
 CULLEMBER, JOHN
His surname and that of his wife and daughter changed to Williams,	3
 CULVERWELL, ANN
Divorced from her husband William Culverwell,	62
 CUMBERLAND BANK OF ALLEGHANY.
A further supplement to the act incorporating the bank,	168
CUMBERLANDENGINF.
Company incorporated,	101
D.
 DARE, NATHANIEL
See Bourne, James J. and	38
 DARNELL, RICHARD
See Court, Teresa, and	236
 DARRINGTON, MARY ANN
Divorced from her husband William D Darrington,	258
 DASHIELL, ALFRED H.
He and others authorised to file a petition in the court of chancery for the sale of certain lands conveyed by R. Ridgely to said Dashiell and his wife, &c.	163
 DAVIS, REV. HENRY L.
Authorised to remove certain slaves into this state,	70