

INDEX TO THE LAWS.

| | Chap. |
|---|--------------|
| DIVORCES. | |
| Henrietta Hewitt divorced from her husband William Hewitt, | 86 |
| Priscilla North divorced from her husband Edward North, | 89 |
| Lucinda D. Lusby divorced from her husband Thomas R. Lusby, | 90 |
| Sophia Porter divorced from her husband Lewis Porter, | 92 |
| James Bosworth divorced from his wife Mary Amanda, | 93 |
| Henrietta S. Love divorced from her husband William S. Love, | 115 |
| John Yeamans divorced from his wife Sarah, | 129 |
| Elizabeth Gibson divorced from her husband William Gibson, | 160 |
| Ann Gilder divorced from her husband Henry Gilder, | 162 |
| Theodore Kimmel divorced from his wife Elizabeth, | 185 |
| Ann Maria Bush divorced from her husband Robert Bush, | 238 |
| Mary Ann Darrington divorced from her husband William D. Darrington, | 258 |
| Elizabeth Bowen divorced from her husband Thomas Bowen, | 264 |
| George Lewis Opperman divorced from his wife Ann, | 257 |
| George Dawson divorced from his wife Rebecca, | 233 |
| | |
| DORCHESTER COUNTY. | |
| The servants of overseers to work on the public roads of the county. Allowance to the overseers. They are to render accounts, &c. | 10 |
| The register of wills to make out between the 1st and 10th of May annually, and deliver to the commissioners of the tax, an alphabetical list of all alienations of lands made by any will, &c. | 102 |
| Gates permitted to be erected on certain public roads in the county, on payment of a tax, &c. | 104 |
| A branch and the low lands at Parson's creek and Tobacco Stick, to be drained, &c. | 114 |
| A bridge at Federalsburgh to be rebuilt, | 150 |
| To be divided into seven election districts, | 181 |
| — Commissioners appointed for dividing the county into seven election districts, | 177 |
| A lot of land at the mouth of Cambridge creek to be valued and condemned for the erection of a tide mill, | 212 |
| Talbot and Caroline counties and the first election district of Dorchester county, form the eighth district for choosing one elector of president and vice-president of the United States, | 213 |
| — The remainder of Dorchester county, Somerset and Worcester counties, form the ninth district for the like purpose, | Id. |