

INDEX TO THE LAWS.

	Chap.
JURORS.	The levy court of Harford county to levy a sufficient sum of money to defray the expenses of the jurymen. The collector to pay them, &c. 103
	The same in Charles and Kent counties, 117
JUSTICE. . . .	See Notice, and 178
JUSTICES OF THE PEACE.	Those of Annapolis to have no jurisdiction over residents in Anne-Arundel county; and those of Anne-Arundel county to have none over residents in Annapolis, 75
	For the city and county of Baltimore. See Apprentices, and 161
K.
KENT COUNTY. .	The levy court to levy for the payment of the jurors of the county court, 117
	The road running by Dr T. Willson's gate to Eastern Neck Island Bridge, &c. to be opened and declared a public highway, 142
	Kent and Queen-Anne's counties form the seventh district for choosing one elector of president and vice-president of the United States, 213
	The levy court to levy for the relief of sundry poor persons of the county, 243
KEY, MARGARET JOHNS	An act for her relief, 31
KILGOUR, JOHN A. T.	See Henderson, Sarah, and 164
KIMMELL, THEODORE.	Divorced from his wife Elizabeth, 185
KING, JOSEPH, JUNIOR.	A letter of attorney executed to him and Lancelot Jacques by Arthur Jacques, and others, made valid, 209
L.
LAND.	See Nonresidents.
LAND OFFICE. .	See Registers of the Land Office, and 57
LETTER OF ATTORNEY.	See King, Joseph Junior, and 209
LEVY COURTS. .	For Anne-Arundel county, to levy the county's proportion for repairing or building a bridge over Patuxent at the governor's bridge, 34
	— to levy for the relief of sundry persons in the county, 243
	For Baltimore county, may call on any col-