

INDEX TO THE LAWS.

	Chap.
OFFICES.	The tax on certain offices repealed, 246
OPPERMAN. GEORGE LEWIS.	Divorced from his wife Ann, 257
ORPHALINE CHARITY SCHOOL.	Corporation name changed to Baltimore Female Orphan Asylum, 32
ORPHANS COURT.	See Apprentices, and Notice, and 155 178
P
PATAPSCO FIRE COMPANY.	See Colvin, Rachel and Samuel, and 190
PATROL.	A supplement to the act of 1822, ch. 85, to establish a patrol in Calvert county, 210
PENITENTIARY.	An additional building to be erected, 229 Directors of the penitentiary may institute suits in the name of the state, for any money due for articles sold, or injuries done, &c. Ib. Free negroes or mulattoes may be sentenced to confinement in the penitentiary, Ib. The salaries of all officers, &c. to be fixed by the legislature alone, Ib. The board of directors may appoint two of their number to be styled The Superintending Committee, &c. Their allowance. Ib.
PENNSYLVANIA & MARYLAND.	Canal Company incorporated, 136 When 8000 shares of the stock shall have been subscribed, &c. the treasurer to subscribe for 5000 shares, 211
PENSIONERS.	The treasurer to restore to the pension list any pensioner who may have been stricken off the pension list under the resolution of 1823, No. 26, &c. 183
PIHARO.	See Gaming, and 88
PINE STREET.	In the city of Baltimore, to be opened, &c. 202
POINT CONCORD.	See Light-Houses, and 201
POOR.	In Somerset county. The trustees, at their annual meeting in November, to appoint an overseer, &c. 26 In Montgomery county. Powers of the trustees enlarged relative to debts due to persons admitted into the poor's house, and property owned by them, 29 In the city and county of Baltimore. See Apprentices, and 161 In Charles county. The trustees authorised to purchase land and build a new poor's house. 230