

counties therein mentioned, passed February the eleventh, eighteen hundred and twenty-two, chapter one hundred and fifty-two. CHAP. 5.

CHAP. VI.

An Act for the relief of Mary Hall, of Worcester County.

Passed Jan 5, 1827

Preamble

WHEREAS by the act of assembly entitled, "An act for the relief of sundry poor persons in the several counties therein mentioned," passed at December session, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and twenty-five, the levy court of Worcester county, are authorised and empowered, at their annual meeting, so long as they shall see cause so to do, to levy and assess on the assessable property of Worcester county, the sum of twenty dollars, for the use of Mary Hill, of Worcester county, to be paid to her, or to her order, or to such person or persons as the said levy court should direct: And whereas a certain Mary Hall, of Worcester county, was the name of the person for whose use the said sum of money was intended, who can have no benefit from the said provision in the said act of assembly, by reason of the error in the said act of assembly; Therefore,

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the collector of Worcester county, be and he is hereby authorised, to pay to Mary Hall, of Worcester county, or to her order, all such sum or sums of money as he may have collected for the use of Mary Hill, of said county, in pursuance of the provisions of the act of assembly, entitled, "An act for the relief of sundry poor persons in the several counties therein mentioned," passed at December session, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and twenty-five. Collector to pay over to Mary Hall, certain monies.

2. And be it enacted, That the levy court of Worcester county, be and they are hereby authorised, to levy and assess on the assessable property of Worcester county, annually, for as many years as they shall see cause so to do, a sum of money not exceeding twenty dollars, to be paid to the said Mary Hall, or to her order, or to such person or persons as the said levy court may appoint. Annual levy for her support

CHAP. VII.

An Act for the relief of certain Minors therein mentioned.

Passed Jan. 9, 1827

Preamble

WHEREAS it appears to this legislature, from the petition of Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, and Charles C. Harper, that Emily L. Harper and Robert G. Harper, infant children of the late Robert G. Harper, esquire, have an interest in a certain tract of land called Moreland Manor, lying between the Tioga River and the head of Seneca Lake, in the state of New-York, and that it is absolutely necessary, for the benefit of said infant children, that a system for selling and leasing said lands, set on foot by your petitioner Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, and the said Robert G. Harper, esquire, before his death, and which had actually commenced, should not be interrupted in consequence of the minority of the said Emily L. Harper and Robert G. Harper; therefore,
