

CHAP. 103. of jurymen at Harford county court during the years eighteen hundred and twenty-seven and eighteen hundred and twenty-eight.

Levy to be made annually

2. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the said levy court to levy as aforesaid, in the year eighteen hundred and twenty eight, and annually thereafter, such sum of money as they may deem sufficient to pay the expenses which may be annually incurred by the attendance of jurymen at Harford county court.

To be collected as other county charges

3. And be it enacted, That the sum or sums of money directed to be levied by this act, shall be collected by the collectors of Harford county as other county charges are now collected, and shall be accounted for by them as herein after directed.

Collectors to pay jurymen

4. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the collectors of the different election districts, to pay to the jurymen of said districts, immediately after the termination of each and every court, such sum of money as they may severally be entitled to receive for their attendance at said court as jurors.

Certificates of jurymen's attendance

5. And be it enacted, That a certificate, signed by the clerk of the county court, expressing the number of days which any jurymen may have attended said court, and the sum due to him for such attendance, including the mileage now allowed by law, shall be a sufficient authority to the said collectors to pay the amount so specified in the said certificate.

Collectors to settle with levy court

6. And be it enacted, That the said collectors shall annually settle their accounts with the said levy court for the monies which they may have collected under the provisions of this act, and pay over to the said levy court any surplus remaining in their hands, which surplus, if any, shall be applied to county uses.

CHAP. CIV.

Passed Feb 26 1827 An Act to authorise the erection of Gates on the Public Road therein mentioned in Dorchester County.

Freamble

WHEREAS it is represented to this General Assembly, by the petition of sundry inhabitants of Dorchester county, that much inconvenience, as well as serious injury, is sustained by reason of their stock passing from the extensive marshes in Meekin's Neck, in said county, by way of the county road, into the forest near Black Water River, where the stock is frequently lost entirely, to the great prejudice of the owners in that part of the county where your petitioners reside, and for want of some legal authority to keep a gate or two on said county road; your petitioners pray legislative aid to remedy the serious inconvenience under which they labour; Therefore,

Gates may be erected on road leading through Meekin's Neck

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall and may be lawful for any citizen or citizens of Dorchester county to erect and keep, on the public road leading through Meekin's Neck to the head of Hungar River, two gates, one at Poplar Neck near John Tubman's store house, and the other at a place called the Great Marsh Bridge, for the use and purposes before herein recited, upon the express conditions following: All and every own-
