

night-time or frequenting the houses of other persons in said village, without the permission of their masters, mistresses or CHAP. 106.
 ov. seers. ~

8. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to keep or raise any geese or swine within the limits of said village, except in pens or other inclosures, and if any geese or swine are found going at large within the limits of said village, belonging to any person or persons whatsoever, it shall and may be lawful for the bailiff of said village, upon information of any of the inhabitants thereof, or upon his own view, to seize all such geese and swine, and to secure the same in some common pound, and them safe keep until the owner or owners thereof, if known, shall be informed by said bailiff; and the bailiff shall receive for his trouble fifty cents for every hog, and fifty cents for every dozen geese, and a proportionate sum for every goose, so seized and impounded; and if the owner or owners of such geese and swine shall neglect or refuse to pay the aforesaid sum within two days after having notice of such seizure, it shall and may be lawful for the said bailiff to sell the same at public sale in said village, between the hours of twelve and three o'clock in the evening, after giving three days public notice in said village, and to pay two thirds of the money arising from said sales over to the said commissioners, to be applied by them to defray the expenses of improving said village.

Geese or swine prohibited being raised in village

9. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall on the second Monday of April next, or as soon thereafter as may be convenient, nominate and appoint a person of good repute and skill to be clerk to the said commissioners, whose duty it shall be to keep a fair and faithful record of all their proceedings. by virtue of this act, in a book to be provided for that purpose by the said commissioners, which proceedings shall be subject to the inspection and examination of the inhabitants of the said village, and of all persons who may be concerned in said proceedings; and the said commissioners shall allow their clerk such compensation for his services as they may think right and reasonable, to be paid out of the money arising by virtue of this act.

Appoint a clerk-Duties

10. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons shall refuse or neglect to pay the taxes, fines and forfeitures, respectively charged against them by virtue of this act, it shall and may be lawful for the commissioners to collect the same in the same manner, and with the same costs, that small debts are collected out of court; and in case there may be found real or personal property within the village of Denton, and the owner or owners thereof being resident, or of some other county, then and in that case the commissioners shall have full power and authority to sell so much of said property as will satisfy the sum or sums so due and owing by the owner of said property; Provided, that before the said commissioners shall proceed to sell any property of any person or persons who shall be resident of any other county, it shall be the duty of the collector to call on the tenant, (if any lives on the property,) and on his refusal or neglect to pay, the commissioners are hereby authorised to give notice in some news-paper, if any printed in the county where said owner

Persons neglecting to pay taxes, how to be proceeded against

Proviso 1 2