called the "Ghost." . . . Baltimore: Printed by M. K. Goddard, 1782.]

Description unknown.

The Maryland Journal and Baltimore Advertiser announced this performance on September 3, 1782. Seilhamer includes it in his list of performances for the season of 1782-1783. There was probably a playbill printed but no copy was preserved in Wall's collection. The theatre was not opened until September 17.

Not in Evans.
No copy located.
