
A Bibliography of Maryland Imprints

The Maryland Historical Society copy, presented in 1928 by Miss Mary L. Trippe, contains the list of subscribers for Somerset County who had unanimously elected the Honorable John Hurry as their Visitor. The list is endorsed by Wm. Smith, President of the Visitors of Kent Co.

The list found on this broadside agrees with that in Ledger A., Book 1783 of Washington College which was reprinted in the Maryland Historical Magazine Vol. VI p. 171.

This broadside may have been printed in Philadelphia.

Not in Evans.

MdHS (Broadside drawer.)

236. WESTMINSTER ASSEMBLY OF DIVINES. [The Shorter Catechism, agreed upon by the reverend Assembly of Divines at Westminster. Baltimore: Sold by M. K. Goddard at the Post Office. 1782.]

Description unknown.

This entry was taken from Evans who does not locate a copy.

Evans, 17799.

No copy located.

1783

237. ALLISON, PATRICK. Candid Animadversions, | Respecting A Petition | To The Late | General Assembly | Of Maryland, | In behalf of the Episcopal Ministers in | the same. | By Vindex. | [rule] | [three lines of quotations] | [double rule] | Baltimore: | Printed by Hayes And Killen, | In Market-Street. | [rule] | M.DCC.LXXXIII.

Sm. 8vo. [A]-C⁴. 12 leaves.

Pages: [i]-iv, [1]-19.

Leaf measures: 6½ x 4½ inches.

This attack on the petition of the ministers of the Episcopal church to the Maryland Assembly was written by the Rev. Patrick Allison, pastor of the First (Presbyterian) Church from 1763 to 1802. The main reason for opposition to the measures is "the aggrandizement of any one sect above others, by holding an illicit commerce with civil power . . . will ever raise a powerful alarm, unless the people are enslaved or asleep . . ." (p. iv.). The tract was reprinted by Goddard and Angell in 1793 with the addition of a series of papers showing the partiality of the Assembly to the Episcopal church. Both Evans and Sabin incorrectly ascribe this to Patrick Ellison.

Evans, 17922. Sabin, 22337.

MdHS. LC.

238. ANNAPOLIS THEATRE. Annapolis Theatre. | Dennis Ryan presents his most respectful Complements | . . . begs | Leave to inform them, that he intends opening, by Authority, this | Theatre, on the 19th of April next, with the Tragedy of the | Grecian Daughter, and the Farce of the | Lying Valet. . . . | March 24, 1783. | [Annapolis: Printed by Frederick Green, 1783.]

Small folio broadside.

Leaf measures: 6 x 8 inches.

Type page is inclosed in an ornamental border.

Not in Evans.

NYHS.

239. ——— By Authority. | At the Theatre in Annapolis, | On Saturday, April 19, 1783. | By the American | Company of Comedians, | Will be presented a Tragedy, called | The Grecian Daughter. | . . . To which will be added, an Entertainment, called | The Lying Valet, | . . . [Annapolis: Printed by Frederick Green, 1783.]

Folio broadside.

Leaf measures: 13½ x 8½ inches.

Not in Evans.

NYHS.