LC. Huntington.

342. ——— The Committee appointed to prepare a Plan for the tem- | porary Government of the Western Territory, have | agreed to the following Resolutions . . . [Annapolis: Printed by John Dunlap, 1784.] ✓

Folio broadside.

Leaf measures: $17 \times 10\frac{1}{2}$ inches.

The committee consisting of Jefferson, Chase and Howell submitted their report on March 1 recommending the establishment of ten states between the Ohio and the Mississippi to be called Sylvania, Michigania, Cherronesus, Assenisipia, Metropatamia, Illinoia, Saratoga, Washington, Polypotamia, and Pelisipia. They also proposed that slavery be abolished in this territory after 1800. The provisions were defeated and the report was recommitted. It appeared on March 22 in nearly the same form as that in which it was accepted on April 23. See numbers, 343 and 344.
