Folio broadside. Printed in two columns. Type enclosed in ornamental rule.

Leaf measures: 13 x 7½ inches.

A long poem exhorting youth to follow the ways of God. A typical selection:—

“Can a Country be safe, or a State be secure,
Or can fam'd Independence long last, or endure,
If the minds of the people, oppressive and vain,
Continue forgetful, or proud and prophane,
Delighting in dances and impious plays,
Or wantonly wasting their nights and their days . . . ”
