460. CHASE, SAMUEL. To the Roman Catholic Voters in Baltimore-Town. | Gentlemen, | The publication of the Rev. Mr. Sewall, of a statement by the Rev. Doctor Carroll, | of a conversation between him and Mr. Daniel | Carroll, and Mr. Sewall's remarks thereon, de- | mand my notice; because my principles and con- | duct are misunderstood, . . . and . . . | may have | some influence on your votes at the ensuing Elec- | tion. . . . | [signed] Samuel Chase. . . . | Baltimore-Town, October 4, 1788. [Baltimore: Printed by William Goddard, 1788.]

Folio broadside. Printed in two columns.

Leaf measures: 16 x 8½ inches.

Samuel Chase promised Dr. Carroll to favor a bill in the Maryland legislature which would enable the Catholic Church to legally secure the property belonging to it. Unfortunately for his political career, he was misunderstood by Dr. Carroll as being in favor of a general law to incorporate all religious bodies. When this law failed to receive his support, an attack on him was printed by Mr. Sewall.
