✓ 61. JAY, JOHN. To The | Inhabitants | Of The | United States of America. | Friends And Countrymen, | The present situation of public affairs demands | your most serious attention, and particularly | the great and encreasing depreciation of your | currency requires the immediate, strenuous, | and united efforts of all true friends to their | country, . . . [signed] John Jay, President. | . . . [ornamental rule] | Annapolis: Printed by Frederick and Samuel Green. [1779.]

Folio.

Leaf measures: 12 x 7½ inches.

This address to the people of the United States was unanimously passed by Congress on May 26, 1779, and a copy was sent by John Jay to Governor Johnson on the 28th of May. Frederick Green apparently used this copy in printing the broadside bearing his imprint. This is one of the several such addresses to the people which were printed in order to encourage them in their struggle against England and aid in procuring men, money and supplies.

Not in Ford or Evans.
