

broadside.

Title from a notice in the Maryland Journal and Baltimore Advertiser of December 9, 1791, addressed "to the despicable author of the anonymous handbill, called "Description of a fête champêtre." The notice appears in the column headed "Baltimore," is unsigned and therefore was probably written by Goddard.

Not in Evans.

No copy located.

12 Ellicott, Andrew, 1754-1820.

Ellicott's / Maryland and Virginia / almanac, / and / ephemeris, / for the year of Our Lord, / 1792; / being bissextile, or leap-year, / and the sixteenth year of American independence. / Among other interesting particulars, are the motions of the / sun and moon, the true places and aspects of the eight / planets, the rising and setting of the sun, and the rising, / setting, southing and age of the moon, &c. - To which / are added, the lunations, conjunctions, eclipses, judgment / of the weather, festivals, and other memorable days, and / days for holding courts in Maryland and Virginia: - like- / wise, a table reducing the currency of Pennsylvania, New- / Jersey, Delaware, and Maryland, to the currencies of the / other states, and to English and Irish money - Also, a ta- / ble of dollars and other coins, as they now pass in each of / the United States; with many other useful tables and phy- / sical receipts, a letter from the Alleghany philosopher - and / several compositions in prose and verse: - the whole cal- / culated to instruct and entertain our readers. / [double rule] Os homini sublime dedit: cœlumque tueri / Jussit, et erectos ad sidera tollere vultus. - Ovid. / [rule] Baltimore: / Printed and sold, wholesale and retail, by / John Hayes, Market-street. // [1791]

16°. 19 1/2 cm. 1 illus.

Pages: [44]

Signatures: [A]⁴, F⁴-E⁴, F².

Title enclosed in ornamental rule.

Evans 23347.

RPJCB.

13 Forman, Thomas M.

To the freemen of Cæcil county. / Gentlemen, / [first column begins] In a publication signed