14 Gibson, William, 1753-1832

To the voters / of / Baltimore town and county, / Charges, ill-founded and malicious, ushered into the public view by every artifice which cun- / ning and designing men could suggest, have been made to injure the private and public charac- / ter of Mr. William M' Laughlin, and to prevent his being elected your sheriff. - That he has fully / and satisfactorily refuted those charges, it is believed, every candid and unprejudiced person will readily / admit... / [4 lines of text] /

15 Gorsuch, Robert.

Communication addressed to the independent electors of Baltimore-town and county, accusing William M'Laughlin of "having imposed upon the inhabitants of this county, when sheriff, to an alarming and ruinous degree."
Baltimore? 1791.
