

Evans 24064.

No copy located.

- 57 Catalogue of about two thousand volumes of books, on various subjects, many of which are very scarce, to be sold at Mr. Starck's tavern.
Baltimore: Printed by David Graham, 1792.

The book auction is advertised in the February 10, 1792, issue of the Baltimore daily repository, which states, "Catalogues to be had at the place of sale, and of Hugh Barkley."

Evans 24182.

No copy located.

- 58 Commercial fire company, Baltimore.

Articles, / for the government of the / Commercial fire-company of Baltimore. / January 1, 1792. / We, the subscribers, reposing confidence in each other, do, for the better preservation of our own / and fellow-citizens' houses and effects from fire, mutually agree to the following articles, viz. / [2 columns, 46 lines of text in first column, 42 in the second, containing eleven articles of the society; 4 columns script type, containing 63 subscribers' names;]
Baltimore: Printed by W. Goddard and J. Angell. // [1792]

broadside. 47 x 38 cm.

Ornamental border.

Evans 24065.

MdPE, MdHi.

- 59 Easton, Md. Theatre.

For the benefit of Miss Kitely, and Messrs. Smith and Kelly, on Wednesday evening, October 3d, the patriotic tragedy of The Roman father; or, He saved all who saved the state ... A comic interlude, called The Devil upon two sticks; or, The examination of Doctor Last, before the president and college of physicians ... a farce, called Captain O'Blunder; or The true-born Irishman ... with other entertainments.

Easton: Printed by James Cowan? 1792.

broadside.

Title from advertisement in the Maryland herald,