114 Davis, Ignatius.

Ten dollars / reward. / Ran away, on the 23d inst. a handsome / active mulatto slave, named Arch, about 21 years of age, / is slender built and of middle stature, talks sensible and artful, / but if closly [!] examined is apt to tremble, has a ridge or scar on / the back of his neck, about an inch long; had on, when he went away, an old / country linen shirt and good oznabrigs trowsers, an old grey kersey coat, wornout at / the elbows - had no hat, shoes, or other cloaths whatever, but he probably will / steal others, he is a fast reaper and no doubt will procure a sickle and endeavour / to pass as a freeman. I will give the obove [!] reward if the said fellow be taken / twenty miles or any further distance from home, or half a dollar per mile, for / any distance under, in case he be secured in any gaol so that I get him again, and if / brought home to me, living in Maryland, near Frederick-town, all reasonable / charges. / [signed] Ignatious [!] Davis. / June 24, 1793. /
