

1798. [- Vol. IX. - No. 1602. Monday, December 31, 1798]

[colophon:] Printed and sold by / Yundt and Brown, / South Gay-street, No. 12. // [1798] folio. 50 cm. 1 folded sheet, 5 columns to the page in each number.

Issued daily, except Sunday.

Evans 33722.

MdEE. For other copies see Brigham.

429 Fonderden, Adam.

A Valedictory address to the people called Methodists. / To the Reverend John Harber, resident minister, and the members of the / Methodist Episcopal church in Baltimore. / The address of Adam Fonderden and John Hargrove. / Respected and dear brethren, / as a very important change has taken place in our ... Our wish and desire is, notwithstanding, to live in as much peace, / and friendship with you all, as on our part it will be possible. / Adam Fonderden, John Hargrove. / Baltimore, 5th June, 1798. //

22 x 32.5 (20 x 26.5) cm. b roadside.

No imprint.

An address upon Christian fellowship -- Trinity in the Godhead -- a declaration of our desire to live in peace and friendship.

Not in Evans.

Title and description from American imprints inventory, which locates this broadside DLC. No copy available; missing in inventory.

430 Freemasons. Maryland. Grand lodge.

[double rule] Grand lodge / of / Maryland. / [rule] / At the regular half-yearly communication of the Rt. worshipful grand / lodge of free and accepted Masons, for the state of Maryland... // [Baltimore? Printed by Thomas Dobbin? 5798, i.e. 1798]

4°. 22 cm.

Pages: [1], 2-4.

No signatures.

Caption title.

Not in Evans.

MdBFM.