

8°. 23 cm.

Pages: [1-3], 4-7.

No signatures.

Without music.

"Paine, Robert Treat (Dec. 9, 1773 - Nov. 13, 1811), poet, christened Thomas, but legally renamed in 1801 after his eldest brother who died of the yellow fever in 1798." - Dictionary of American biography, v. 14, p. 157.

Only copy located has a mutilated page 7 and no visible page numbering; but judging from the presence of one bracket (for brackets surround page numbers), the figure 7 was evidently printed.

Advertised as "Just published and for sale ... price 12 1/2 cents" in the Telegraphe of June 2, 1798.

Not in Evans.

MdHi.

- 451 A Pamphlet for the information of the merchants concerned in the exportation of merchandize entitled to a drawback of duties, or to an allowance in lieu of a drawback of duties, pursuant to the laws of the United States.
Baltimore: Printed by John Hayes. 1798.

Advertised in the Federal gazette & Baltimore daily advertiser, issue of January 13, 1798, as "Just published, by John Hayes, (price, twelve and an half cents) and for sale at his printing-office, Public-alley."

Not in Evans.

No copy located.

- 452 The Patriotic songster for July 4th, 1798. (Addressed to the volunteers of Baltimore.) Containing all the late patriotic songs that have been published.
Baltimore: Printed and sold at S. Sower's printing office, No. 67, Market street, at his book-store in Fayette-street, and at Thomas, Andrews and Butler's bookstore. (Price eleven-pence). 1798.

Evans 34314.

No copy located.

- 453 A political address, lately delivered in Kentucky, and various other parts, by a Virginian, during