

his travels to the western country; and which, from numerous solicitations, the author has been prevailed upon to offer the public through the medium of the press. This publication is designed to disseminate facts, eradicate error, and spread the gleams of truth before the public.
Hagerstown, Md.? 1798?

"Just received, and for sale at most of the stores in Hagers-Town, Maryland, October 1, 1798." - Evans.

Evans 34390.

No copy located.

- 454 Pownall, Mary A. Wrighten, d. 1796.
Jemmy of the glen. Words and music by the late Mrs. Pownall.
Baltimore: Published and for sale at J. Carr's Music store, Gay street. -- 1798.

4°.

Pages: 2.

Evans 34409.

Evans locates DLC, but no copy was available.

- 455 Protestant Episcopal church in the U.S.A. Maryland (Diocese).

Journal / of a / convention / at the / Protestant Episcopal / church, / in the / state of Maryland; / held in Baltimore, from Thursday, the 31st of / May, to Saturday, the 2nd of June. / Both days inclusive. / [rule] / Baltimore: / Printed by Samuel Sower, in Fayette-street. / [rule] / M,DCC,XCVIII. // 12°. 19 cm.

Pages: [1-5], 6-12.

Signatures: [A]⁶.

Not in Evans.

DLC, MdBD, MdBE, MdHi.

- 456 [double rule] / [index] Rights of man: - By John Winter. / [rule] / ... Volume IV. Number 207. Wednesday, January 3, 1798 [- Vol. V. Number 258. Wednesday, December 26, 1798]
Frederick-Town, (State of Maryland): Printed by John Winter, at his office in Patrick-street, near