

"Related to Jacobism in France and its influence in America." - L.C. card for another edition.

Not in Evans; Parsons 197.

DGU, MdHi, Garrett.

- 459 A Tit-bit for the public; or, Memoirs of an antiquated shaver, &c.
Baltimore: Printed by T. E. Clayland and T. Dobbin, 1798.

Advertised in the Telegraphe of July 3, 1798, "On the all-glorious 4th of July, will be published, A Tit-bit for the public, or Memoirs of an antiquated shaver, &c."

Evans 34667.

No copy located.

- 460 To the free and independent voters of the city and county of Baltimore. Fellow-citizens, The opposers of general Smith, finding that they are not able to rally to the standard of opposition, any number like a majority of the free, virtuous and independent American citizens, have descended to disgrace their country, and insult their countrymen, by enlisting to their services a band of British seamen, belonging to a privateer of that nation, now laying in our port - [With affidavits to the opposition of J. John O'Donnell to the mechanics voting for General Smith,
[Baltimore: Printed by William Pechin, 1798]

Broadside.

Evans 34670.

No copy located.

- 461 U. S. Laws, statutes, etc.
An Act / for the / government and regulation of seamen / in the / merchants' service. / [ornamental rule] / ... [3 columns, each 78 lines] / [ornamental rule] /
Baltimore: Printed and sold by W. Pechin, No. 15, Baltimore-street. // [1798]

Broadside. 41 1/2 x 35 cm.

Reverse: Articles of agreement.

Evans 34692.

DLC, Garrett.