

containing, / [first column begins] an almanac; / a bill to establish an uni- / form system of bankruptcy / throughout the U. States. / abstract of the Revenue law, / list of duties, tonnage, / drawbacks and bounties, / custom-house fees, &c. / an Act to establish a general / stamp-office, with a list of / stamp duties; / an Act to value property, and / an Act to lay a direct tax, / &c. / officers of the revenue; / government of the U.
 States; / list of Congress; / [second column begins] Departments of State, Trea- / sury, War, Navy, and Ju- / diciary, with an account of / what is important in each; / Post office establishment, with / times of receiving and clo- / sing the mails at Baltimore; / ministers, counsuls, &c. to and / from the U. States; / government of the state of / Maryland, with a list of the / General assembly; / an account of the Corporati- / on of the city of Baltimore, / with a list of officers; / banks, insurance-company, / &c. in ditto. / And / a variety of other useful matter. / [ornamental rule] / Baltimore: / Printed for and sold by Michael & John Con- / rad, & co. No. 140, Market-street. // [1800]

24°. 13 cm.

Pages: [156]

Signatures: [A]2, B6-E6, F5, G6-I6, K-N6, O5.

Title enclosed in ornamental border.

Almanac interleaved.

Advertised as "This day is published" in the December 9, 1800 issue of the American and daily advertiser.

MdHi (imperfect copy), DLC.

556

The / Baltimore / weekly magazine, / complete in one volume. / - Containing - / a variety of entertaining, instructive, and useful productions, /
 - original and selected - / making in the whole a collection of upwards of two hundred different tales; / the most lengthy of which are, / [first column begins] History of Jack Smith, / --Jack Martin, / Cottager, / Schabraco, / Pauline de Rivieres, / [second column begins] / Ildegerte, / Edric of the forest, / Adventures of a louse, / Character of a gentleman, / &c. &c. [columns end] / suited to the palates of / the moralist, lovers of sentiment, poetry or anecdote. / [ornamental rule] / Let cold philosophy her learning boast, /