

And stoic virtues freeze the insensate mind - /
 Be mine the task, by well-told tales and good; /
 (Some gay and sprightly - others rather sad) /
 To wake the various feelings of the soul. / [cornamental rule] /
 Baltimore; / Printed for the editor by William Pechin, corner of Gay and Water - streets. /
 June 10th, 1801. // [i.e. 1800]

4°. 25 cm.

21 numbers published during 1800, each with 8
 pages.

Colophon: Printed by J. B. Colvin, at Pechin's printing-office, the corner of Gay & Water - / streets - where subscriptions for this magazine are received at three dollars per / annum. - Printing of all kinds executed with neatness, elegance and / dispatch - and on the most moderate
 terms. /

First number, April 26, 1800; last number in 1800, Dec. 21.

Suspended publication Sept. 6- Dec. 13, 1800, inclusive.

Ceased publication, May 27, 1801.

DLC, MdBE, PPL.

557

[triple rule] / ... Bartgis's ... / Federal [U.S. arms] gazette, / or The / Frederick county weekly advertiser. / [rule] / Vol VII, no. 399, Wednesday, January 1, 1800 [Vol VIII, no. 442, Wednesday, October 29, 1800?] / [rule] /
 Printed, every Wednesday, by Matthias Bartgis, at his English & German printing office, at the corner of Market & Patrick- / streets, Frederick-Town; where subscriptions, advertisements, essays, articles of intelligence, &c. are thankfully received, / and where printing & bookbinding in general are executed with neatness and dispatch. / [double rule] / [1800]

folio. 43 cm. 1 folded sheet, 4 columns to the page, in each number.

Issued weekly.

Caption title.

Continued by Bartgis's Republican gazette.

MdBE. For other copies see Brigham.

558

Bartgis's Republican gazette. Vol. VIII, no. 16,