

indicates that a local incident is the subject; therefore the pamphlet was probably published and circulated in Baltimore. The printer, the author and "Dick Bully" have not been identified, but "Squire C-r-l", mentioned in the text, may have been James Carroll, then a candidate for the state legislature on the Federalist ticket (cf. American, Aug. 8, 1800).

MdBE (microfilm), RPB.

- 581 Das glücks-rad in frag und antwort.
Baltimore: Gedruckt und zu haben bey Samuel Saur, 1800?

Advertised on p. 96 of Das hundertjahrige calender: "Das glücksrad in frag und antwort, wird in wenigen tagen in hiesiger buchdruckerey zu haben seyn."

Not in Seidensticker.

No copy located.

- 582 [Harper, Robert Goodloe]
Eystander: / or / A series of letters / on the subject of / the "Legislative choice" / of / electors in Maryland: / In which the Constitutional right to a legislative choice / in that state, and the necessity of adopting it, for / the present election only, in order to counteract / the artifices of the Anti-Federalists in Virgi- / nia and other states, and to prevent a / president from being elected by the / minority of the nation, in- / stead of the majority, / are considered and / fully proved. / [double rule] / Addressed to the people of Maryland. / [double rule] / Baltimore: Printed by Yundt and Brown, No. 12, South / Gay-street, M, DCCC. //

120. 18 1/2 cm.

Pages: [1-3], 4, [5], 6-30.

Signatures: [A]⁶, B6, C3.

Sabin 45096.

DLC, MdH1, NN, Garrett.

- 583 Hargrove, John.
A / Sermon, / on the true object and nature of / Christian worship; / delivered at the opening