

done at the shortest notice. [1800]

broadside, 10 1/2 x 8 1/2 inches.

Description from letter of Arthur Pforzheimer, rare book dealer, New York City, February 16, 1943, offering this broadside for sale.

Pforzheimer.

591 Johnson, Thomas.

To the freemen of the Fourth district. / [rule] / [first column begins] My willingness to serve as your / representative in Congress has / contrary to my expectation drawn on / me the animadversions of writers under / assumed signatures
... [112 lines of text in first column, 3 additional columns. Signed by] Thomas Johnson, //
[Elizabeth (Hager's) Town: Printed by Thomas Grieves, near the Court-house, 1800]

broadside. 42 1/2 x 26 cm.

Reply to article "under the signature of 'A number of citizens of the Fourth district' which has been circulated in hand bills and printed and re-printed in the public papers."

MdHi.

592 Kemp, James, bp., 1764-1827.

A / Sermon, / delivered in Christ church,
Cambridge, / in / Maryland; / on the twenty-second of February, 1800, / being the day of mourning appointed by Congress, / for the death of / General George Washington, / late President of the United States. / By James Kemp, A.M. rector of Great /
Choptank parish. / [double rule] /
Easton: / Printed by James Cowan. // [1800]

8°. 22 cm. front. (enr. port.), enr. ports.

Pages: [1-5], 6-15.

Signatures: [A]⁴, B⁴.

Sabin 37338.

DLC, MBAt, MBFM, MdHi, NN, PP, Garrett.

593 [Key, Philip Barton] 1757-1815.

[Handbill signed] A friend to fair play.
Annapolis? Printed by Frederick and Samuel Green?
1800.