

- Spoiled child, song from: Fresh and strong the breeze is blowing; composed by Michael Arne (reverse: Since then I'm doom'd) item 553
- Sprigg, Richard, Address to the voters of Anne Arundel and Prince George's counties, and city of Annapolis (opposing Sprigg's election to Congress) item 403
- Spy, Hagerstown, see Washington spy, Hagerstown.
- Staatsbote, General, Frederick, see General staatsbote, Frederick.
- Standard of liberty, a poetical address, by Susanna Rowson item 260
- Star, Republican, Easton, see Republican star, Easton.
- Star-spangled banner (song) pages 64, 126
- Starck's tavern, Catalogue of a great variety of valuable books, and two book-cases, to be sold at item 112
- , Catalogue of about two thousand volumes of books, to be sold at item 57
- Starr and Bonsal, Wilmington page 122
- Statutes, Maryland, see Maryland. Laws.
- Statutes, U.S., see U.S. Laws.
- Steuben, Friedrich Wilhelm, baron. Manual exercise, appended to Militia law of the state of Maryland, complete item 513
- . Military discipline, for the regulation of the troops of the United States item 325
- . Regulations for the order and discipline of the troops of the United States . . items 207, 209
- Stewart, William page 196
- Stewart's inn, Fell's Point pages 36-37
- Stoddert, major (letter to, signed John Rogers)
A glorious victory obtained by one of our "useless frigates" . . . On board the frigate l'Insurgente item 537
- Stone, John Hoskins. By His Excellency, John Hoskins Stone, esq., governor of Maryland. A proclamation (declaring the election of eight representatives to Congress) item 297