

- Theatre bills page 92
- Theatre, Easton, see Easton. Theatre.
- Thetis (ship) page 147
- Third Haven meeting, Society of Friends page 211
- Thirty dollars reward. Ran away ... a handsome Negro lad named Arch. {Reward offered by Ignatius Davis} item 10
- Thomas, Isaiah page 60
- Thomas, Robert Bailey page 190
- Thomas, Andrews and Butler pages 55-56
- Thompson, William. Baltimore town and Fell's Point directory, by Thompson and Walker pages 49-50,
item 321
- Thoughts on some capital subjects in divinity, by Devereux Jarratt page 29,
item 18
- Thoughts on the death of the King of France, by William Fox page 178,
item 172
- Three instructive dialogues upon the Christian religion, by Thomas Vivian page 29,
item 43
- Time piece, New York page 219
- Tit-bit for the public; or, memoirs of an antiquated shaver item 459
- To be sold at public vendue, at the Popular-spring tavern, four hundred acres of land {signed} John Gilliss item 232
- To the citizens of Baltimore-town, by Samuel Chase {justifying his act of arresting certain persons} item 159
- To the free and independent voters of Talbot-county, by David Kerr {publication to vindicate his conduct} item 63
- To the free and independent voters of the city and county of Baltimore. Fellow-citizens: The opposers of General Smithitem 460
- To the freemen of Caecil county {publication against William Matthews by Thomas M.
Forman} item 13