Banks, John, defendant.

[A full and particular narrative of the Life, Character and Conduct of John Banks, a Native of Nieuport in Austrian Flanders, who was executed on the 11th day of July 1806, for the wilful murder of his wife, Margaret Banks. Baltimore, G. Keatinge, 1806]

Title supplied from New York edition (Printed for the proprietor, 1806). DLC has two issues, of which one (20 p.) has added t.p. (with cut): The only correct account of the life, trial and confession of John Banks, who is to be executed this day, July 11. The other issue (22 p.), with a one-page description of the execution inserted at p. 20, is probably the one copied by Keatinge.

Advertised in the Baltimore Evening Post, July 16, 1806, as "This day is Published, and for sale at Keatinge's Book-store;" and "correctly copied from the original, printed in New-York, and received by the mail, July 14, 1806."

No copy known.
