

torches, bow and arrows above, [double rule, [1 line, quotation, [thin-thick rule, Baltimore: Printed by Richard D. Rider. 1808.

39 p. 16 cm. [A]<sup>6</sup> B-C<sup>6</sup> [D]<sup>2</sup>.
Sabin 9272.

Advertised in the Baltimore American, June 9, 1808, as "This day is Published And for sale."

MH; MdH1; RPB.

[601]

Camoens, Luis de.

Poems, from the Portuguese of Luis de Camoens: with remarks on his Life and Writings, Notes, &c. &c. [short thick-thin rule, By Lord Viscount Strangford. [short thin-thick rule, [2 lines, quotation, [short thin-thick rule, Baltimore: Published by Kid & Thomas. Printed by Robert Carr. [row of dots, 1808.

129 p. 17.5 cm. A-L<sup>6</sup>(advertising on L6<sup>r</sup>).

Parsons 314.

CtY; DGU; DLC; IaU-L; KyLx; LNSTM; LU; MB; MH (2 copies); MWA; MdBE; MdBJ; MdBS; MdH1 (2 copies); PP; PU; PWcH1; PWW; ViU. Garrett.

[602]

Carr, Joseph.

[The fourth Book of elegant extracts for the German Flute, Violin or patent Flageolet, containing the most favorite and fashionable songs, sung at the Theatres and other public places by Mr. Webster, Mr. Jefferson &c. Baltimore? 1808,

Advertised in the Baltimore American, June 23, 1808, as "New Music, Just published by J. Carr ... Baltimore."

No copy known.

[603]

Carr, Joseph.

[Songs for the Piano-Forte, including Blest were the hours; Ned of the hills; Highland Mary; I vow the young Gipsy has conquered my heart; The Flowers of the forest; William and Lucy, written by Mr. Bernard (formerly of the Baltimore Theatre) and composed by Mr. Gillingham. Baltimore? 1808,

Advertised in the Baltimore American, June 23, 1808, as "New Music, Just published by J. Carr ... Baltimore."

No copy known.

[604]

Carroll, John, archbishop.

Baltimore, May, 1808. Rev. Sir, After the settle-