

Cut: portrait of Washington on verso of sig. [a]<sub>2</sub>; sig. [a]<sub>1</sub> blank.

Some of the early paragraphs of this biography are taken from the "Sketch of Mr. Washington's life and character," by John Bell, first printed in C. H. Whar-ten's "A poetical epistle to ... George Washington" (Annapolis, 1779).—of. note on DLC card.

DLC (2 copies); MdBE; MdH1 (2 copies); PH1. [64]

[Wood, Gabriel]

Observations on a Pamphlet, &c. published by William B. Magruder, immediately preceding the Meeting of the Legislature of the State of Maryland, in the Autumn of eighteen hundred. [filet] Baltimore: Printed by Yundt and Brown. 1801.

14 p. 23.5 cm.

Preface signed: Gabriel Wood.

No separate copy located. Bound with item 120; signatures continuous and "Errata" for the Magruder pamphlet on recto of sig. P2, with above t.p. on verso. [65]

Wyatt, Joseph.

Sermons, by Joseph Wyatt, E.M.C. [filet] Sermon I. Divine Revelation our best Guide. Those things which are revealed belong to us. Deut. xxix, 29. [filet] Sermon II. Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. Eph. v, 11. [filet] Annapolis: Printed by Frederick Green, for Richard Key Watts. [filet] 1801.

36 p. 17.5 cm. A-C<sup>6</sup>.

MdBE.

[66]

1802

[Adventures of the Mammoth Cheese, giving an account of its Birth, Parentage, and Travels by land and water; together with the reception at Washington and description of that city. Baltimore, W. Pechin? 1802]

Advertised in the Baltimore American ... for the Country, Jan. 28, 1802, as "This day at 12 o'clock, will be Published, And for Sale at the different Book-Stores —Also, at the Office of the American and Mr. Pechin's Printing-Office."

Immediately below, appears the following advertisement: "Having purchased the copy right of a work enti-