

Beaty, Robert, defendant.

The Trial of Robert Beaty (Who was Tarred and Feathered,) on an Indictment for Perjury. [thick-thin rule] [1 line, quotation] [thin-thick rule] Baltimore: Printed for the Proprietor. 1809.

51 p. 20.5 cm. [A]<sup>4</sup> B-F<sup>4</sup> [G]<sup>2</sup>.
Sabin 4152.

PPL-R. Garrett.

[712]

Berthollet, Claude Louis, comte.

Researches into the Laws of Chemical Affinity. By C. L. Berthollet, Member of the Conservative Senate, and of the National Institute, &c. Translated from the French by M. Farrell, M.D. Baltimore: Published by Philip H. Nicklin and Co. No. 202, Baltimore street. Also by Far-rand, Mallory and Co. Boston, and Hopkins and Earle, Philadelphia. 1809.

iv, 212 p. 20 cm. [A]<sup>4</sup> B-S<sup>6</sup> T<sup>2</sup>.

At end: Fry and Kammerer, Printers.

CtHT; MWA; MdBE; MdHi; OCU.

[713]

[Biographical Memoirs and Anecdotes of the celebrated Mrs. Clarke, giving a true and impartial account of her Adventures and Intrigues from her Birth to the present time; with an Investigation of all charges brought on her account against the Duke of York, by G. L. Wardle. Baltimore? Samuel Barnes? 1809]

Advertised in the Baltimore Evening Post, Apr. 29, 1809, as "Just Published, by Samuel Barnes Fell's Street, And for sale at the different Book stores in this city—Price 25 Cents."

Perhaps pirated from the London edition of the same year, the title of which is almost identical with the advertisement above.

No copy known.

[714]

Butler, John West.

Annapolis, 18th May, 1809. Proposals By John West Butler, for Publishing a Paper in the City of Annapolis, to be called the Maryland Republican. [filet] [74 lines in 2 columns, separated by row of printing ornaments] Conditions of Publication. [10 lines] [thick-thin rule] Subscribers' Names. [short vertical rule] Residence, or, where necessary, some convenient Post-Office, or public house, where the Paper may be left. [at bottom]