Carroll, John, archbishop.

John, by the Grace of God, and approbation of the Holy See Archbishop of Baltimore, To the Rev. and all my beloved brethren, members of the Roman Catholic Church in the Diocese of Baltimore—peace and salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ. The supreme civil authority of our country has, with singular propriety excited our attention to the advantages & necessity of recurring, in times of publick calamity, to the aid & protection of that Almighty Power ... [5 lines] Therefore my Reverend brethren, the rectors and pastors of Catholic churches, chapels and congregations in this diocese of Baltimore are required, immediately after receiving this pastoral address, to publish and make known to their respective flocks, that Thursday the 9th day of September next ensuing, is appointed ... [20 lines] [Baltimore, 1813.]?

broadside 25.5 x 20 cm. Without imprint.

Parsons 333 includes this in 1809, but since Sept. 9 fell on Thursday only in 1802 and 1813 and since Carroll became archbishop in 1808, this is almost certainly an 1813 imprint.
