Weems, Mason Locke.

[The Life of Gen. Francis Marion. Baltimore? J. Robinson? 1810?]

Ford (item 85) gives a full discussion of the evidence for the publication date and place of this item. The most cogent reasons are (1) the 1809 Maryland copy-right notice in the extant second edition; and (2) mention of "Robinson the Printer, Balt^o" in letters from Weems to Carey, particularly the letter of Nov. 18, 1809.

No copy known.

Wells, John I.

An Essay on War. Proving that the spirit of war, existing in the rational mind, is ever inimical to the spirit of the gospel; that the wars mentioned in the history of the Jews, were for the happiness of that people, the punishment of idolatrous nations, and the instruction of mankind generally. Also, that the spirit of war is wholly excluded from the Christian Church. By John I. Wells. [3 lines, quotation] Second edition with additions and corrections. Hartford, (Con.) Baltimore: Reprinted for the author, J. I. Wells. Published by Joseph W. Miller. 1810. Joseph Robinson, print.

164 p. 13 cm. A-I⁹ K²(-K2).
